Dear colleagues,

Although we are well aware that the current situation in Ukraine causes serious uncertainties, we have nevertheless started the preparations for a CDNL annual meeting. Through this mail we would like to inform you that the CDNL annual meeting is scheduled to take place – live! - in Dublin on Wednesday July 27, 2022 – in the same period of the IFLA | WLIC. Let's hope that we will be able to see each other again in person, especially since the last offline meeting we had was almost 3 years ago. Further information on the programme and preparations required will follow later.

In addition to global instability, and the attack on Ukraine in particular, COVID 19 may also still affect our possibilities or willingness to travel. We therefore thought it would be good to arrange an additional online meeting this year, probably in September or October. As this meeting will focus on a different theme than the Dublin meeting, it will also be well worth attending by those who will join the Dublin conference. Also regarding this online meeting, more information will follow at a later stage.

Our thoughts are with the Ukrainian people, and with all those who are forced to leave their country as a consequence of acts of war.

With warm regards and stay safe,

Lily Knibbeler - Chair CDNL
