Dear CDNL members,

We would like to inform you of the latest details as a preparation to the upcoming CDNL annual meeting:

- Homework

A short reminder to do some preparatory work prior to the meeting (see below the two points highlighted in yellow)

- Elections

With our mail of June 21 we informed you that the end of Lily Knibbeler's term as CDNL's Chairperson is approaching. We have not received any further applications from other candidates, so the intention is that during the CDNL meeting we can formalize the candidacy of Marie Louise Ayres (Director General of the National Library of Australia, current CDNL Vice Chair and sofar sole candidate for CDNL Chairperson)

- COVID

Due to the high prevalence of COVID in Ireland at the moment, masks will be provided at the conference venue for those wishing to wear them. Sanitiser will also be available. To play your part in helping to prevent the spread of COVID-19, please consult the public health advice in Ireland:

<https://www2.hse.ie/conditions/covid19/preventing-the-spread/>

Please note, if you feel unwell and are displaying symptoms of COVID-19, you are asked not to attend the conference, and follow public health guidelines:

We wish you all safe travels and look forward to see you in Dublin next week.

With kind regards, Mab van Wijk

Onderwerp: CDNL annual meeting July 27, 2022 | Final details plus some preparatory work

Dear CDNL members,

This year's CDNL is coming closer and we would like to provide you all with the final details on the CDNL meeting which will take place on July 27. As you are used to, we ask you to do a little homework prior to the meeting (see the yellow marked points).

- The question to prepare for the speed-date session (2 minutes-exchange with your peers in the morning):

What are your favourite, inspirational ‘famous words’ you often quote in your working life, and why?

Please share a quote – from literature, history, philosophy etc. – that has been a motivation to you in your working life and explain us why.

- Please read the request in the attached letter from Narrative 4 to come ready with a 5 minute story to share about an object that is meaningful to you – and bring the object or a photograph of the object.
- Transport on July 27: the CDNL meeting takes place at the Radisson Blu Royal Hotel, Golden Lane, Dublin, which is not the same venue as the WLIC venue. You can either arrange a taxi or public transport (or walk) from your hotel to the Radisson Blu Hotel or make use of the bus kindly provided by the National Library of Ireland. There will be 1 bus available in front of the entrance of The Convention Centre Dublin \(theccd.ie\) which will leave at 09.15 hrs.

Furthermore, we are pleased to send you attached the following information:

- The final version of the program, including contact details (in case you have any (CDNL related) questions while in Dublin)
- Letter from Narrative 4 with more details on the Story Exchange Workshop

Kind regards and safe travels,
Mab van Wijk
